

Interview with local representatives/chairman/member

Guideline questions

1. Please introduce yourself and your work. What is your daily work?
2. How long you have been working with fisher's community? Do you belong to this community? If not, how far do you live?
3. What is your role for fishing community? What kind of and how you do it? What is the mechanism, frequency and way of dialogue, negotiation and discussion?
4. Tell us about your experiences about the fishing community? Their lives and livelihoods?
5. Tell us about the availability of basic services (e.g., education, health, shelter, food and accessibility, acceptability and quality of those services).
6. Do you provide any services to this community? What kind and why?
7. Do you involve in conflict management of the community? What kind of conflicts are common and what are the reasons for such conflict?
8. During election, what does the community demand from you and what are the reason for such demand?
9. Who are the most important authorities that play an important role in the lives and livelihoods of fishers and how?
10. In your opinion, what is the status of their human rights? What are the rights that they are not able to enjoy?
11. Do you have any particular policy or guideline for serving this community? Any work plan, SDG or any other national initiatives that you are implementing?
12. What are the major issues that you have to deal with fishing community?
13. What about the safety and security of fishing at sea? What is your role in this case?
14. Do you think the community could be better off if support was provided? What kind and how?
15. Tell us about the women and children of the society? How do they differ from other societies?
16. What are the key challenges in fishing? What, why and how (please elaborate)?
17. Do you have any suggestions as to how the lives and livelihoods can be better off?
18. How can you and others contribute?