

Instrument for fishermen contractors (Sacabuzos) in the Honduran Moskitia

1. General information about the interviewees, name, ID number, community, municipality, department, contact.
2. Do they know about human rights and how the State acts to respect them?
3. How many trips do you make per season? How many divers do you send per boat? Are there payment arrangements with each person, and if so, which ones? Who selects the cayuqueros? What requirements are considered for hiring? Is any certification requested?
4. Are there any incentives for the captain and divers if the target is exceeded, financial, other?
5. Is alcohol, drugs, medication or other permitted on the vessel? Please explain.
6. Are there pure oxygen cylinders available for the injured divers on the vessel and is there a fast boat to move to a medical centre? Explain.
7. Do you understand the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights¹? Do you know the three pillars? If not, explain the principles.
8. What protocols are used when there is a diver accident? Do companies or contractors support the medical treatment process for divers?
9. Do divers generally work with sufficient and good quality equipment? Why?
10. Are operational health and safety measures complied with?
11. What preventive measures are taken to avoid accidents?
12. Is there any state control of diving work?
13. Are minors (children) hired to work as cayuqueros?
14. What recommendations would you give to improve the diving operation in terms of safety?
15. Have there been accidents in the industry and what kind of accidents?
16. Are there any other issues you would like to address?

¹ Video: The UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights: An Introduction \(youtube.com\).