

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
Target 17.1. Strengthen domestic resource mobilization, including through international support to developing countries, to improve domestic capacity for tax and other revenue collection
JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.		Human rights relevance. Correspondence with the target CESCR art. 2 (1): Each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take steps, individually and hrough international assistance and co-operation, especially economic and technical, to the maximum of its available resources, with a view to achieving progressively the full realization of the rights recognized in the present Covenant by all appropriate means, including particularly the adoption of egislative measures. art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential mportance of international co-operation based on free consent. Farget 17.2. Developed countries to implement fully their official development assistance commitments arget of 0.7 per cent of ODA/GNI to developing countries, and 0.15 to 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least of the countries.
appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Farget 17.2. Developed countries to implement fully their official development assistance commitments arget of 0.7 per cent of ODA/GNI to developing countries, and 0.15 to 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least cooprovide at least 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least developed countries JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	Net ODA, total and to LDCs, as percentage of OECD/Development	encouraged to consider setting a target Human rights relevance.
appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential mportance of international co-operation based on free consent. Farget 17.2. Developed countries to implement fully their official development assistance commitments rarget of 0.7 per cent of ODA/GNI to developing countries, and 0.15 to 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least coprovide at least 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least developed countries JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms	Net ODA, total and to LDCs, as	encouraged to consider setting a targ appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential mportance of international co-operation based on free consent. Farget 17.2. Developed countries to implement fully their official development assistance commitments rarget of 0.7 per cent of ODA/GNI to developing countries, and 0.15 to 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least developed countries JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. CESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international cooperation based on free consent. Farget 17.3. Mobilize additional financial resources for developing countries from multiple sources	Net ODA, total and to LDCs, as percentage of OECD/Development Assistance Committee (DAC) donors' gross national income (GNI)	Human rights relevance. Correspondence with the target appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Farget 17.2. Developed countries to implement fully their official development assistance commitments arget of 0.7 per cent of ODA/GNI to developing countries, and 0.15 to 0.20 per cent of ODA/GNI to least developed countries JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. CESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international cooperation based on free consent.	Net ODA, total and to LDCs, as percentage of OECD/Development Assistance Committee (DAC) donors'	encouraged to consider setting a target Human rights relevance.

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
UDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	Debt service as a percentage of exports of goods and services	Human rights relevance. Correspondence with the target
CESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international cooperation based on free consent.		Correspondence with the target
Farget 17.5. Adopt and implement investment promotion regimes for least developed countries
JN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights	Number of national & investment	Human rights relevance.
	policy reforms adopted that
JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	incorporate sustainable development objectives or safeguards x country	Correspondence with the target
CCPR art. 2.2.: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other neasures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant.
CESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co- operation based on free consent.
Target 17.6. Enhance North-South, South-South and triangular regional and international cooperation on an sharing on mutually agreed terms, including through improved coordination among existing mechanisms, i facilitation mechanism JDHR art. 19: Everyone has the right () to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through	Access to patent information (WIPO	Implicit human rights reference wi any media and regardless of frontiers. Art. 27: Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural rife of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.	Patent Database) and use of the international IP system	respect to access and the right to seek information.
		Correspondence with the target. Relates to cultural rights.

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
ICCPR art. 19 (2). Everyone shall have the right to freedom of expression; this right shall include freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers, either orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other media of his choice.
ICESCR art. 15.1.: The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone: b) To enjoy the benefits of scientific progress and its application. c) To benefit from the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author. Art. 15.2. The steps to be taken by the States Parties to the present Covenant to achieve the full realization of this right shall include those necessary for the conservation, the development and the diffusion of science and culture. 3. The States Parties to the present Covenant undertake to respect the freedom indispensable for scientific research and creative activity. 4. The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the benefits to be derived from the encouragement and development of international contacts and co-operation in the scientific and cultural fields.
CRPD art. 21 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that persons with disabilities can exercise the right to freedom of expression and opinion, including the freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas on an equal basis with others and through all forms of communication of their choice, (),
Target 17.7. Promote the development, transfer, dissemination and diffusion of environmentally sound teconcessional and preferential terms, as mutually agreed	chnologies to developing countries or	favourable terms, including on
UDHR art. 27: Everyone has the right freely () to share in scientific advancement and its benefits. Art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	Average applied tariffs imposed on environmental Goods	No human rights reference. Target much broader than the indicator ICESCR, Article 2 (1): Each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take steps, individually and through international assistance and co-operation, especially economic and technical, to the maximum of its available resources, with a view to achieving progressively the full realization of the rights recognized in the present Covenant by all appropriate means, including particularly the adoption of legislative measures. Art. 11(1) The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, [to an adequate standard of living] recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 15.1.: The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone: b) To enjoy the benefits of scientific progress and its application Art. 15.2.: The steps to be taken by the States Parties to the present Covenant to achieve the full realization of this right shall include those necessary for the conservation, the development and the diffusion of science and culture. 4. The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the benefits to be derived from the encouragement and development of international contacts and co-operation in the scientific and cultural fields.

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
CRC, art. 4: () With regard to economic, social and cultural rights, States Parties shall undertake such measures to the maximum extent of their available resources and, where needed, within the framework of international co-operation.
CRPD, art. 32: 1. States Parties recognize the importance of international cooperation and its promotion, in support of national efforts for the realization of the purpose and objectives of the present Convention, and will undertake appropriate and effective measures in this regard, between and among States and, as appropriate, in partnership with relevant international and regional organizations and civil society, in particular organizations of persons with disabilities. Such measures could include, inter alia: d) Providing, as appropriate, technical and economic assistance, including by facilitating access to and sharing of accessible and assistive technologies, and through the transfer of technologies.
Target 17.8. Fully operationalize the technology bank and science, technology and innovation capacity-buil of enabling technology, in particular information and communications technology	ding mechanism for least developed	countries by 2017 and enhance the us
UDHR art. 19: Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers. Art. 27: Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits. ICCPR art. 19 (1): Everyone shall have the right to hold opinions without interference.(2). Everyone shall have the right to freedom of expression; this right shall include freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers, either orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other media of his choice.	Proportion of individuals using the Internet.	Implicit human rights reference. Relates to the right to take part and the right to receive and seek information. Would be relevant to disaggregate individual access. Corresponds to part of the target of ICT.
ICESCR, art. 15.1.: The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone: b) To enjoy the benefits of scientific progress and its application. Art. 15.2.: The steps to be taken by the States Parties to the present Covenant to achieve the full realization of this right shall include those necessary for the conservation, the development and the diffusion of science and culture. 4. The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the benefits to be derived from the encouragement and development of international contacts and co-operation in the scientific and cultural fields.

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator CEDAW art. 14.2.: States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to eliminate discrimination against women in rural areas in order to ensure, on a basis of equality of men and women, that they participate in and benefit from rural development and, in particular, shall ensure to such women the right: h) to enjoy adequate living conditions, particular in relation to () communications.
CRPD art. 9.2. (g) Promote access for persons with disabilities to new information and communications technologies and systems, including the Internet. (h): Promote the design, development, production and distribution of accessible information and communications technologies and systems at an early stage, so that these technologies and systems become accessible at minimum cost. Art. 21 States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that persons with disabilities can exercise the right to freedom of expression and opinion, including the freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas on an equal basis with others and through all forms of communication of their choice, (), including by: a) Providing information intended for the general public to persons with disabilities in accessible formats and technologies appropriate to different kinds of disabilities in a timely manner and without additional cost; b) Accepting and facilitating the use of sign languages, Braille, augmentative and alternative communication, and all other accessible means, modes and formats of communication of their choice by persons with disabilities in official interactions; c) Urging private entities that provide services to the general public, including through the Internet, to provide information and services in accessible and usable formats for persons with disabilities; d) Encouraging the mass media, including providers of information through the Internet, to make their services accessible to persons with disabilities; e) Recognizing and promoting the use of sign languages
Target 17.9. Enhance international support for implementing effective and targeted capacity-building in deduction development goals, including through North-South, South-South and triangular cooperation	 eveloping countries to support national	plans to implement all the sustainable
UDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	The dollar value of financial and technical assistance, including through North-South, South-South,	Implicit human rights reference in the emphasis on reducing inequality.
ICCPR art. 2.2.: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant.	and triangular cooperation, committed to developing countries' designing and implementing a holistic policy mix that aim at sustainable development in three dimensions
ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing,	(including elements such as reducing

properation based on free consent. Government of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international coperation based on free consent. Government of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international coperation based on free consent. Government of this right, recognizing to this effect the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. Government of this right, recognized in the present Covenant to depth of the rights of the rights of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties to the present Covenant, to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the present Covenant, to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the present Covenant, to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the present Covenant, to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the present Covenant, to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation, the measures, each State and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-coo-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equivalent (AVE) will be calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Government of the word of the target of the MDG Gap task force report. The MDG Gap task	Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
Target 17.10. Promote a universal, rules-based, open, non-discriminatory and equitable multilateral trading system under the World Trade Organization, including through the conclus of negotiations under its Doha Development Agenda UDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. ICCPR art. 2.2: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need [Reget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs exports by persons. On human rights reference. Compared to the human rights reference. This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by roduct sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percen	and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to	inequality within a country and
In a sequence of the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need required from the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need required from the problems of both food-importing and lood-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need required from the problems of both food-importing and lood-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need required from the problems of both food-importing and lood-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need required from the recognization of the larget from the problems of both food-importing and lood-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food suppl	ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-	governance.
UDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. ICCPR art. 2.2: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Same as above Worldwide weighted tariff-average This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of	operation based on free consent.
set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized. ICCPR art. 2.2.: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to the readization of this right, recognizing to the seast that importance of international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Iarget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization ecutions, including services. Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors.	Target 17.10. Promote a universal, rules-based, open, non-discriminatory and equitable multilateral trading of negotiations under its Doha Development Agenda	system under the World Trade Organiza	tion, including through the conclusion
In this indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measures are transparent will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This moticator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. This indicator can be disaggregated and analysed by type of tariff (MFN applied rates and preferential rates), by product sector, by region and by level of development. The unit of measurement will be in % terms. Ad valorem equivalents (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. These		Worldwide weighted tariff-average	No human rights reference.
ICCPR art. 2.2.: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. In the MDG G	set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.
Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Integrat 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets.
constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Iarget 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 No human rights reference. Iarget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization lecisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets.
measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant. ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Same as above Interest (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Interest (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Interest (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Interest (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage. This methodology also allows for cross-country comparisons. Calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Interest (AVE) will be calculated for those tariffs that are not expressed in percentage			is merely technical.
ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need [Argert 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 [Argert 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets.
ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need [arget 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 [arget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets. Average tariffs faced by developing No human rights reference. Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors.	measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant.	•
adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Farget 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Farget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Target 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets and LDCs by key sectors Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors		. , , to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Farget 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Beame as above Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markets access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries are transparent and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference. Average tariffs faced by developing countribute to facilitating markets and LDCs by key sectors co-operation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Agreet 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Country comparisons. Calculations can be performed on a yearly basis. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target of access of all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markacess of the properties of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing countries, to ensure an of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing countries, to ensure an of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target of the MDG Gap task force report. Developing countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markaces.
recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. The least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access. Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Target 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.		·
(b) Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need These calculations are already part of the MDG Gap task force report. Target 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.		can be performed on a yearly basis.
equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need Of the MDG Gap task force report.
Farget 17.11. Significantly increase the exports of developing countries, in particular with a view to doubling the least developed countries' share of global exports by 2020 Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Farget 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
Developing country's and LDCs' exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markaccess Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
exports (by partner group and key sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markaccess Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
sectors), including services. Correspondence with the target Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating market access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.	Same as above		No human rights reference.
Target 17.12. Realize timely implementation of duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all least developed countries, consistent with World Trade Organization decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating markaccess Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least developed countries are transparent and simple, and contribute to facilitating mark access Same as above Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors No human rights reference.
Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors Average tariffs faced by developing countries and LDCs by key sectors countries and LDCs by key sectors	decisions, including by ensuring that preferential rules of origin applicable to imports from least develope access	ed countries are transparent and simple	, and contribute to facilitating market
	Same as above		No human rights reference.
Correspondence with the torget		countries and LDCs by key sectors	Correspondence with the target

Human rights and labour standards	Name and description of selected priority	Comments on selected priority indicator
Same as above	GDP	No human rights reference.
		Correspondence with the target
Farget 17.14. Enhance policy coherence for sustainable development
The full range of human rights instruments and labour conventions listed in the introductory part of this	Number of countries that have	Explicit human rights reference.
able.	ratified and implemented relevant	This is a key structural human rights indicator, and international instruments including	should include the range of human rights instrument environmental, human rights, and	explicitly and implicitly referenced across the SDG labour instruments	targets (see list compiled by the Danish Institute for Human Rights
Farget 17.15. Respect each country's policy space and leadership to establish and implement policies for poving CCPR and ICESCR joint article 1.1: All peoples have the right of self-determination. By virtue of that	Numbers of constraints that are	No human rights reference ight they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural	embodied in ODA or loan development.	agreements, IIAs. RTAs etc.	No direct link to the target
Farget 17.16 Enhance the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by multi-stakeho and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in all countries, i		are knowledge, expertise, technology
JDHR art. 28: Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms	Indicator 7 from Global Partnership	No human rights reference.
set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.	Monitoring Exercise: Mutual	Indicator relates to Paris Declaration octional in the Bookhador our bortally realized.	accountability among development	on aid effectiveness.
CESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an	co-operation actors is strengthened adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing,	through inclusive reviews	Some correspondence with the
and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to	through inclusive reviews	target ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international cooperation based on free consent.
peration based on nee consent. Farget 17.17 Encourage and promote effective public, public-private and civil society partnerships, building	on the experience and resources strat	ogies of partnerships
	Amount of US$ committed to public-	Implicit human rights reference to
UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights	private partnerships	the UN Guiding Principles on private partiferships	Business and Human Rights.
		The indicator reflects part of the target
Farget 17.18 By 2020, enhance capacity-building support to developing countries, including for least develo	and countries and small island develor

This relates to the non-discrimination provisions and the requirement for special measures under all core human rights instruments. CRPD: Art. 31.1.: States Parties undertake to collect appropriate information, including statistical and research data, to enable them to formulate and implement policies to give effect to the present Convention. The process of collecting and maintaining this information shall: a) Comply with legally established safeguards, including legislation on data protection, to ensure confidentiality and respect for the privacy of persons with disabilities; b) Comply with internationally accepted norms to protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and ethical principles in the collection and use of statistics. Art. 31.2.: The information collected in accordance with this article shall be disaggregated, as appropriate, and used to help assess the implementation of States Parties' obligations under the present Convention and to identify and address the barriers faced by persons with disabilities in exercising their rights. Art. 31.3.: States Parties shall assume responsibility for the dissemination of these statistics and ensure their accessibility to persons with disabilities and others.	Proportion of sustainable development indicators with full disaggregation produced at the national level.	Explicit human rights reference. Indicator congruent with the target which refers to human rights discrimination grounds
Target 17.19 By 2030, build on existing initiatives to develop measurements of progress on sustainable deve support statistical capacity-building in developing countries ICCPR art. 2.2.: Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant.	Financial and other resources made available to strengthen the statistical capacity in developing countries	Human rights relevant. Indicator relates to Paris Declaration on aid effectiveness. Some correspondence with the
ICESCR Art.11 (1) The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to an adequate standard of living for himself and his family, including adequate food, clothing and housing, and to the continuous improvement of living conditions. The States Parties will take appropriate steps to ensure the realization of this right, recognizing to this effect the essential importance of international cooperation based on free consent. Art. 11(2): The States Parties to the present Covenant, recognizing the fundamental right of everyone to be free from hunger, shall take, individually and through international co-operation, the measures, including specific programmes, which are needed: (b)Taking into account the problems of both food-importing and food-exporting countries, to ensure an equitable distribution of world food supplies in relation to need		target; however, the ambition of the target to build statistical capacity beyond conventional measurement is not articulated in the indicator.
	Inclusive Wealth Index	Implicit human rights reference. Provides a complementary element to the indicator under Target 17.18